In a letter dated January 10, 2022, defendant Mykai Davis requests that the Court “grant him the opportunity to serve the last remaining ten percent (10%) of his projected release term on home confinement.” (Doc. #589).

By February 3, 2022, the government shall file a response to the letter. Whatever else the government says in its letter, the letter should first address whether the Court has the legal authority to grant the requested relief.

Chambers will mail a copy of this Order to defendant at the following address:
